COLLECTION

Magna-Fire™ has one of the largest, unobstructed views ever offered in a see-through fireplace.

■ The Dave Lennox Signature™ Collection line of wood-burning fireplaces represents the highest achievement in design and performance. Each offering displays an impressive fire with a commanding presence that provides your home with a distinctive focal point. The Estate™ is our largest masonry-style wood-burning fireplace—an ideal centerpiece for a spacious living area. The Colonial™ features a “high-opening” style reminiscent of hearths used in America’s early days. And the Magna-Fire™ fireplace offers a see-through configuration that delivers over 2,000 square inches of combined viewing area from two rooms. All three models offer customizable design options to suit the most discerning tastes. ■

Estate™ is one of the largest factory-built, traditional masonry-style fireplaces ever offered.

Colonial™ is a high-profile, high-opening fireplace that's perfect for high-ceilinged rooms.
